One of the items uncovered during an SRL Work Party in 2014 was a glass mineral water bottle manufactured for W D Batkin Ltd of Stafford probably around 1920. See the photograph below.¹

The crown-top bottle was found in the Branch Canal Basin close to the site of the former Lock House at Baswich and is in excellent condition. Its dimensions are:

- Overall Height: 8¼" (222mm)
- Start of neck (where it curves in) from base: 4½" (105mm)
- Diameter of the base: 2¾" (62mm)
- Outside Diameter of top: 1" (22mm)
- Inside Diameter of top: 5/8" (17mm)

It is colourless and has the moulded inscription “BATKIN LTD W.D.B. STAFFORD” on the body, and the letters “F.G.C.” on the base.

“W.D.B.” are the initials of Wilmot Dudley Batkin (1848-1935). In 1902 he had bought the Eclipse Works (13 Gaol Road, Stafford) to manufacture soft drinks, taking over the business of Hardman & Openshaw (Ale Bottlers and Mineral Water Manufacturers), and traded under the name of W.D.Batkin Ltd. He was a bottling agent for Vimto and Guinness, and an agent for Smith’s Crisps. He probably did not make his own bottles but bought them in, he seems to have been fairly business savvy and would know the right people; the markings on the bottles would be the makers marks.²

In this case, the letters “F.G.C.” indicate that the bottle was made by Forster’s Glass Company of St Helens (Lancashire) – this company traded between 1902 and 1966 when it became part of Rockware Glass.

The Staffordshire County Museums Service have a number of Batkin beer and mineral water bottles in their collection.³ Many are of the Codd⁴ type, however item 94.008.0001 is identical with the one found at Baswich except for a different set of marks on the base – “F258 / S I / UGB” – this item was dug up during excavation of foundations for the Staffordshire Record Office extension in March 1994. “U.G.B.” shows this bottle was made by the United Glass Bottle Manufacturers Ltd., a large conglomerate of several British glass manufacturers formed in 1913 – this signalled the introduction into the UK of fully automated bottle making machines first patented in the United States by Michael Owens (1903).

From time to time, W.D.Batkin Ltd advertised for staff in the local press. In 1916, for example, the business needed a “Carter-Salesman”\(^5\); and in 1941 a man was wanted for deliveries who could drive a Ford lorry – the starting wages were £3 15s a week and references were required.\(^6\)

Wilmot Batkin was a well-known figure in Stafford during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. He was a member of the Staffordshire Knot Lodge, a member of the County Conservative Club and the Constitutional Club for many years. He was also a member of Stafford Bowling Club and was keenly interested in shooting, winning numerous trophies and prizes when competing at clay pigeon shoots.\(^7\)

He was married three times and had six children. According to a family story, he had to be prevented from marrying a fourth time shortly before his death; it seems that Wilmot was what we today would call ‘a bit of a lad’.\(^2\)

After Wilmot’s death in 1935, the business in Gaol Road passed to his second son, George Dudley Batkin\(^8\) (1878-1957). It is thought that the company carried on until the 1960s.

WILMOT DUDLEY BATKIN

Some Additional Insights into his Family and Businesses

Wilmot Dudley Batkin was born in 1848 and baptised at St Marys Church Stafford on 7 June 1848.

His first wife was Mary Turner (1854-1885). They were married on 13 July 1875 at St Thomas Church Penkhull (Stoke-on-Trent). She was 21 and Wilmot was 27. They had two children: John Turner Batkin (1876-1951) and George Dudley Batkin (1878-1957). Mary passed away in 1885 aged only 31.

A year after Mary’s death, Wilmot married Caroline Bridgwood (1855-1913), a spinster, on 17 May 1886 at St Mary’s Church (Stafford). She was 31 and Wilmot... was 38. They had four children: Wilmot Cecil Batkin (1887-1953), Walter Bridgwood Batkin (1889-1977), Elsie May Batkin (1891-1982) and Dorothy Batkin (1894-1988). Caroline died in 1913 aged 58.

Wilmot’s third wife was Elizabeth Trew (c1865-1930). They were married on 18 August 1914 at St Thomas Walton on the Hill (Baswich). He was 66, a widower of 13 Gaol Road and she was 49, a widow of Milford. Their marriage certificate states that the occupation of both their fathers is “gentleman”.

Elizabeth Trew (née Gilbert) was the widow of Charles Leonard Trew; they had married in 1892 in Conway (North Wales) but never had children. By 1901 they were living in Stafford; he was the proprietor of the 15 room Waverley Temperance Hotel at 20 Greengate Street and she was assisting in the business. Elizabeth was living there when her husband Charles passed away in January 1912.

Wilmot’s parents were John Batkin (c1807-1896), a hairdresser, and Elizabeth Dudley (c1810-1875); they had married on 10 July 1828 and appear to have had ten children: William Henry (1829-1881), Clara (b 1830), John (1832-1897), Edmund (1838-1881), Elizabeth (1840-1922), Herbert (1842-1886), Francis (1846-1895), Wilmot Dudley (1848-1935), Emily Ann (1850-1942) and Lucy Jane (1852-1935).

Wilmot’s father (John) was a hairdresser in Stafford and it seems that Wilmot followed in his father’s footsteps, working for Charles Bond, Court Hairdresser of 239 Oxford Street in central London during the late 1860s, probably as an apprentice. By September 1870 Wilmot had returned to Stafford and was working in his father’s shop (36 Gaolgate Street). However Wilmot would not remain as a hairdresser. His mother died in March 1875 and by the time he married Mary Turner four months later, Wilmot was a licenced victualler in Stafford.

His father (John Batkin) was the owner/leaseholder of the Maid’s Head Inn (39 Gaolgate Street) from 1867 until his death in 1896. Initially, Wilmot’s brother-in-law (Richard Sudbury) was the licensee, but from 1875 to 1897 Wilmot was the licensee/occupier. It seems that Wilmot did not live on the premises and that his family’s home was 23 Broad Street.

In 1879 Wilmot set up business with Richard Sudbury and they traded as Sudbury & Batkin Wine and Spirit Merchants. The 1881 Census confirms that Wilmot and his family were living at 23 Broad Street and that he was a “wine merchant”.

In 1886, a year after Wilmot’s wife Mary died, Wilmot married Caroline Bridgwood; their marriage certificate records they were both living at 39 Gaolgate Street and Wilmot was described as a “malster”. It should be noted that in the 1881 Census Caroline Bridgwood was a barmaid at 39 Gaolgate Street, the Maid’s Head.
In October 1887 a disasterous fire destroyed several buildings in the centre of Stafford, on the corner of Gaolgate Street and Market Street – the Elizabethan House, Mummery’s Jewellery Shop, Miss Johnson’s Book Shop and Boots the Chemist. The Maid’s Head was at risk but was saved by the actions of the Stafford Volunteer Fire Brigade. Afterwards, as a mark of his appreciation, Wilmot presented each of the firemen with a silver medal recognising their bravery.

The medal was made by J.A.Restall & Company of Birmingham. The obverse was inscribed “Presented / by / W.D.Batkin / For services at Fire / Stafford / 1 Oct 1887”; the reverse featured the monogram “SVFB” – Stafford Volunteer Fire Brigade. The name of each recipient was inscribed on the edge.16

The 1891 Census records that Wilmot is described as a “Wine & Spirit Merchant” aged 43 of 39 Gaolgate Street, The Maid’s Head.

Following his father’s death in 1896 (at 1 Vine Street, Stafford aged 88), Wilmot Batkin became the owner/leaseholder of the Maid’s Head. The following year Stretton’s Derby Brewery Limited took over the Maid’s Head (holding the lease until 1927), and Wilmot opened a wine and spirit merchant business at 29 Crabbery Street.

In 1898 Richard Sudbury died and on 20 November 1899 Wilmot seems to have sold Sudbury & Batkin to Edward Appelbee Gibbs (1860-1936) and the new business traded as Batkin & Gibbs.17 In the 1901 Census, Wilmot (aged 53) is described as a “retired wine merchant” living at Eccleshall Road, Tillington, just to the north of Stafford.

Wilmot was not “retired” for long. In 1902 he bought the Eclipse Works in Gaol Road (Stafford) to manufacture soft drinks, taking over Hardman & Openshaw (Ale Bottlers and Mineral Water Manufacturers) and started trading under the name of W.D.Batkin Ltd.

Kelly’s 1904 Directory of Staffordshire confirms that Wilmot was a “Mineral Water Manufacturer & Bottler of 13 Gaol Road”, and he continued in this role until at least 1922.

By 1928, when Wilmot was 80, he had moved to Rowley Park in Stafford (Broomfields, Lawn Road) and was described as a “Private Resident”; the business was probably managed by his son, George Dudley Batkin. Wilmot remained at Broomfields until at least 1932 before moving to 11 Rising Brook (Stafford).

Wilmot passed away on the 21 May 1935 aged 87, and his funeral was at Stafford Cemetery (Eccleshall Road) three days later.18

Probate was granted at Birmingham on 7 August 1935 and two of his sons were executors: John Turner Batkin (a Brewer living in Rotherham, Yorkshire) and George Dudley Batkin (13 Gaol Road, Stafford)\(^{19}\) – and it was George who inherited W.D.Batkin Ltd.\(^{20}\)

George Dudley Batkin continued to live in Stafford and when he died on 17 October 1957 his address was 12 Lovatt Street. Administration was granted at Birmingham on 30 December 1957 to his nephew, James Dudley Batkin, a brewer.

Newspaper Report of the death of W D Batkin

(The Staffordshire Advertiser : Saturday 25 May 1935)

DEATH OF MR W.D.BATKIN

OLDEST STAFFORD FREEMASON

Following a brief illness, the death occurred at his residence, 11 Rising Brook, Stafford, on Monday night, of Mr W.D.Batkin. The deceased who was 87 years of age, was a native of the town, his father being the late Mr John Batkin, who for many years was associated with the business life of the town.

For the greater part of his life Mr W.D.Batkin had been associated with the licensed trade and was landlord of the Maid’s Head some 60 years ago. For a number of years he carried on business as a wine and spirit merchant in Crabbery Street, and some 30 years ago he acquired the business of Hardman and Openshaw, ale bottlers and mineral water manufacturers, Gaol Road, which was subsequently carried on under the name of W.D.Batkin Ltd. He continued to take an active interest in the business which is managed by his son, Mr Geo. Batkin up to a week before his death, when he had a seizure.

A member of the Staffordshire Knot Lodge, Mr Batkin was the oldest Freemason in the town, and had held all the offices in his lodge. He was also one of the oldest members of the Stafford Bowling Club, and he had been a member of the County Conservative Club, and the Constitutional Club for many years. Mr.Batkin was keenly interested in shooting, and at one time was one of the best shots in the district. He won numerous trophies and prizes when competing at clay pigeon shoots.

He leaves four sons and three daughters.

The funeral took place at the Stafford Cemetery yesterday (Friday).
*I am only aware of two daughters: Elsie May Batkin and Dorothy Batkin. I suspect that the reporter incorrectly thought there were three daughters: Elsie, May and Dorothy.

APPENDIX 3

Last Will and Testament of Wilmot Dudley Batkin, dated 1930.

This is the last will and testament of me Wilmot Dudley Batkin of “Broomfield”, Rowley Park, Stafford in the county of Stafford, made this eleventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty.

I hereby revoke all wills made by me at any time heretofore. I appoint my son John Turner Batkin, “Rosalyn”, Doncaster Road, Rotherham, my son George Dudley Batkin, 13 Gaol road, Stafford and Herbert Owen, Market Square, Stafford, accountant to be my executors and direct that all my debts and funeral expenses shall be paid as soon as conveniently may be made after my decease. I give and bequeath unto the aforesaid Herbert Owen the sum of twenty five pounds for services as executor of this my will.

I give and bequeath my diamond ring to my son John Turner Batkin, my diamond stud on pin to my son Walter Bridgwood Batkin, my gold hoop ring to my son Wilmot Cecil Batkin. My solid silver waiter tray to my daughter Elsie May Freeman, my silver plated tea set, my decorated china desert set and my silver goblet to my daughter Dorothy Perkin. My sporting gun, cartridge magazine, bag and cartridges to my son in law Gerrard Perkins. My gold watch to my son George Dudley and my chain and guinea coin to my son in law Norman Freeman.

I give and bequeath the house and premises situate and being number 13 Gaol road and my shares in W D Batkin Ltd., mineral water manufacturers and bottles together with all machinery stock in trade horses vehicles and all other articles appertaining to the business to my son George Dudley Batkin, the said George Dudley Batkin to receive all monies due to the company and to pay all monies due from the company including any monies due to the bank at the time of my decease.

I give and bequeath to my son Wilmot Cecil Batkin the sum of two hundred pounds
(he having received considerable sums of money at various times) to be paid to him when and as convenient to my executors.

I direct that my executors shall realise the whole of my real and personal estate not otherwise disposed of as expeditiously as they consider desirable but at all events within the period of three years from the date of my decease and to divide the proceeds of my residuary estate after all expenses have been paid in connection therewith in equal proportions among my son John Turner Batkin, my son Walter Bridgwood Batkin and my daughter Elsie May Freeman and my daughter Dorothy Perkins.

I desire that the particulars of my estate shall not be publicly announced.

W D BATKIN

Signed by the said testator in the presence of us present at the same time who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witness
