ELECTORAL REGISTERS for THE LOCK HOUSE BASWICH (Stafford)

and other relevant data

Researched and written by

David Jones

Introduction

This research had three main objectives.

The first was to use Electoral Registers to identify the adults living at the Lock House who were entitled to vote in a particular year.

The second was to establish when the Lock House ceased to be inhabited.

The third was to identify the Family (or the descendants) of anyone still alive who may have lived in the Lock House with a view to asking them of their memories of the Lock House and its surroundings.

The Electoral Registers for Baswich are held at Staffordshire Record Office. Not all of the Registers exist but those that do are found in the following constituencies:

- Cuttlestone East: 1833 – 1837; 1839 – 1842,
- South Staffordshire: 1843 – 1848; 1850 – 1866,
- West Staffordshire: 1868 – 1881; 1883 – 1884; 1887 – 1888; 1891 – 1900; 1902 – 1908,
- Stafford: 1918 – 1939; 1945 – 1948,

Staffordshire Record Office Visits to search the Electoral Registers

(1) 3 April 2009: I found that the Lock House was lived in by the Holloway Family until 1929/1930. The Lock House was not mentioned in the Electoral Registers of 1930, 1931 or 1932, and neither could I find it in the 1939 Register. This seemed to confirm that the Lock House was abandoned around 1929/1930 and that the Holloways were the last occupants.

(2) 24 July 2009: Searching the 1883 – 1902 Electoral Registers provided good data about who was at the Lock House. The data revealed much new information about events between Censuses: that William Hall may have been there in 1886, that William Sambrooke had returned (from about 1886 until his death in 1889), that William Dale was there between 1893/1894 and 1898/1899, and that Harry Holloway was certainly there in 1899. I had obtained Harry Holloway’s death certificate on 28 April 2009, so knew where he lived in 1939 and was then able to confirm that he had lived at that new address from the 1930 Electoral Register.

Also, the Lock House was not mentioned in the 1883 or 1884 Registers – this was before Parliament passed the Representation of the People Act 1884 that extended the franchise.
(3) 20 February 2010: This turned out to be a very important visit. The main task of the day was to search the Parish Registers to find some Holloway and Sambrooke Records. Then I searched the Electoral Registers and collected data on the Holloways at their new address each year from 1930 to 1939.

With only an hour left before the SRO closed, I decided to check for the Lock House on the 1933-1938 Registers that I had not searched previously – just to be certain that there was nothing to find. By chance I checked the 1935 Register and to my complete surprise found the Lock House mentioned and the Shaw Family in residence – Leslie Shaw and his wife Isabella. They were there in 1934 at the Lock House. Then I went back to the 1930 Register and found the Shaw Family but the Lock House was not named as such, the address was simply given as “St Thomas” and that was the reason I had missed it, because I was looking for “The Lock House”. (In fact they were in the 1931 – 1933 Registers but their address was given as “St Thomas”.) I then searched the 1936 – 1939 Registers and confirmed that the Shaw Family lived in the Lock House until at least 1939/1940. With the 1939 Register, when I originally checked the address in April 2009 I hadn’t appreciated that Baswich Lane was divided between two polling districts and I had inadvertently looked at the ‘incorrect’ one.

(4) 25 February 2010: Another significant visit. I found from the Electoral Registers (1945 to 1962) that the Lock House was lived in by the Shaws until about 1956/1957. I also found the Shaws in the 1931-1933 Registers.

A 1963 map of Baswich that I checked did not show the Lock House, suggesting it had been demolished by 1963.

I also followed Harry Holloway in the Registers in 1902 & 1908, and from 1919 to 1929, and also his widow, Martha Holloway, from 1945 until her death in 1958.

Following on from this research, I then identified the children of Leslie and Isabella Shaw, and found that their youngest daughter (Olive) had married Derek Price. Olive still lived in the Stafford area and I wrote to her.

But before I had a reply, another line of enquiry also proved successful. Mary and Ray Picking (members of Stafford Boat Club) spoke to their friends Tony and Peggy Payne – and it was serendipitous that they knew Olive and had kept in touch with her since school days!

A meeting was arranged for 29 April 2010 and Olive shared her memories and those of her sisters, Eileen and Marian. By doing so, Olive has ensured that these memories of the Lock House and surroundings in the 1940s and 1950s will not be lost but will be preserved for future generations.
